

WHAT IS THE MARYLAND RENTER'S TAX CREDIT PROGRAM?

The Maryland Renter's Tax Credit Program provides financial assistance to help low-income tenants with their rent. Although the program has been around for decades, few people eligible for the Maryland Renter's Tax Credit even know it exists!

HOW MUCH MONEY CAN I GET BACK?

Qualified renters may receive up to $1,000 yearly. Tax credit amounts vary due to renter's income. The credit is paid as a direct check from the State of Maryland.

CALLING ALL MARYLAND SENIORS!

Many senior renters over 60 years old are eligible.

MARYLAND RENTER'S TAX CREDIT PROGRAM CAN HELP!

AM I ELIGIBLE?

The Maryland Renter's Tax Credit Program is available to qualified renters in Maryland who meet specific eligibility requirements:

- Renter's total assets may not exceed $200,000

Credits are calculated according to total income, meaning all combined gross household income before deductions:

- Income from all sources, whether or not taxable for federal and state income tax purposes
- Social Security income
- All other retirement benefits

WHAT WILL I NEED?

- Be prepared to provide info about your gross income and net worth
- Your most recent tax return

WHO CAN APPLY?

- Seniors over 60
- Renters who are permanently disabled
- Some families with dependents under 18 years old
- Others who meet the low-income requirements
- Surviving spouse of a renter who met the eligibility requirements
